ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Ward: "Mr. Speaker, today is the United Nation's designated International Holocaust Remembrance Day. It's a reminder of what happened in Auschwitz and the 6 million Jews that were killed. Hopefully the remembrance of this will remind us that there's still the civility that we're looking for in the world, and all the member states of the UN are asked to develop educational programs to help prevent future genocide. And there is genocide going on as we speak in Africa.

"Mr. Speaker I request that I could insert the Secretary General Ban Ki-moon's comments regarding the United Nation's commemoration of this anniversary," and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative Ward submitted the following:

"Secretary-General's Message

One and a half million Jewish children perished in the Holocaust – victims of persecution by the Nazis and their supporters.

Tens of thousands of other children were also murdered. They included people with disabilities... as well as Roma and Sinti.

All were victims of a hate-filled ideology that labelled them "inferior".

This year's International Day of Commemoration in Memory of the Victims of the Holocaust is dedicated to the children – girls and boys who faced sheer terror and evil.

Many were orphaned by the war, or ripped away from their families.

Many died of starvation, disease or at the hands of their abusers.

We will never know what these children might have contributed to our world.

And among the survivors, many were too shattered to tell their stories.

Today, we seek to give voice to those accounts.

That is why the United Nations continues to teach the universal lessons of the Holocaust.

It is why we strive to promote children's rights and aspirations – every day and everywhere.

And it is why we will continue to be inspired by the shining example of great humanitarians such as Raoul Wallenberg, in this, the centennial year of his birth.

Today, as we remember all those lost during the Holocaust – young and old alike -- I call on all nations to protect the most vulnerable, regardless of race, colour, gender or religious beliefs.

Children are uniquely vulnerable to the worst of humankind.

We must show them the best this world has to offer.

Thank you.

*H.E. Mr. Ban Ki-moon,
The Secretary-General of United Nations"*

Representative Luke: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I would like to announce to the Body that tomorrow is Representative Chris Lee's birthday. So if we could, instead of a belated, do a pre-lated birthday. Happy birthday, tomorrow."

Representative Ching: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This coming weekend kicks off the beginning pre-event for what this Chamber has passed as Hawai'i-Grown Chocolate or Cacao Month. I wanted to make sure everyone was aware that this so-called, brightest on the agricultural horizon which is doing quite well is actually having its first event in Haleiwa. It's called the Haleiwa Cacao Festival.

"There will be tours, those of you who are interested in this more lucrative agricultural industry, they'll have tours there in Haleiwa. It is also going to be it's their third annual. They will have keiki activities, chef demos, etc.

"Wai'alua Estate Cacao Orchard Tours are from 9:30 to 11:30, and they ask that we come celebrate Hawai'i's bright light on the agricultural horizon, with award-winning Wai'alua chocolate. It's learning about the benefits of this crop, and it echoes the views of 'Buy Local, It Matters.' Please support your local AG, and promote sustainable job creation. Thank you."

Representative Brower: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On that note, I just hope everyone will support my Cacao Bill which someone in this Chamber asked me to introduce. Thank you"

Representative Har: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Tomorrow we will celebrate the grand opening of the Kroc Community Center in Kapolei. And for those of you that are not aware, it is the largest community center in the State of Hawai'i.

"Several years ago, the City of Kapolei secured a $90 million grant from the Ray and Joan Kroc Foundation, otherwise known as McDonald's Corporation, and this Body did in fact support the project, via a GIA.

"We're passing around a Certificate, and if possible I'd like every single Member to sign the certificate. It's going around right now, but if you had not had a chance to sign it, please do so. If you're leaving to go home to the Neighbor Islands, if you could stop by my office. Please make sure to do so, so that tomorrow Representative Pine, and there'll be many members of the Legislature attending; Representatives Jordan, Awana, so that we could present it with all of the Members of the House of Representatives."

Representative McKelvey: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. On a more sad note. West Maui lost one of its icon members, Ms. Star Medeiros. At the appropriate time, could I ask for a moment of silence for her and her family? Thank you."

At this time, the Members of the House of Representatives stood for a moment of silence in honor of the late Ms. Star Medeiros of Lahaina.
